UKMTO has received a report of an incident involving a vessel transiting the Strait of Hormuz.

Military authorities have informed UKMTO that a tanker conducting an inbound transit was struck by an unknown projectile. Two crew have sustained minor injuries and the vessel is reported to be continuing to its next port of call under its own power. There is no reported environmental impact at this time.

Authorities are investigating.

Vessels are advised to transit with caution and report any suspicious activity to UKMTO.
