- Saudi-Omani delegation to hold ceasefire talks with Yemen's Houthis in Sana'a.

A Saudi-Omani delegation is planning to travel to Yemen's capital Sana'a next week to hash out a permanent ceasefire deal with Houthi officials and end the country's eight-year-old conflict, two sources involved in the talks said. If an agreement is reached, Yemen's warring parties could announce an agreement before Eid holiday starting April 20, the sources said.

- Euronav Tanker Departs for Yemen to Replace Decaying FSO Safer.

Euronav's VLCC tanker the Nautica has departed for Yemen in the first step toward transferring the oil stored aboard the decaying FSO Safer to a new storage arrangement. UN officials are calling the tanker's departure a key step while however cautioning that they still need to raise a significant amount of money to complete the first, emergency phase of the operation.
